Mr. S. L. Baird, living near town, has purchased Ten Hens and with the changed best of the season. He is a good farmer and a good neighbor.

The Herald's subscription list is closing up in a very satisfactory manner. One of our ways to get the best of the best time are just the future is bright and the people are beginning to realize that they cannot longer do without a good newspaper, every quality of which they find fully contained in The Herald.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Ed P. Moore and Miss Della Rhine will be married at the residence of the bride near Sulphur Springs, this evening.

Mr. Moore is well and is a young man of much ability and promise. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Z. W. Rhine, a sister of our worthy County Superintendent, and a lovely young lady who has made many friends. The Henshaw sisters of these excellent young people.

Col. A. H. Dent, of the United States Life Insurance Company, went to Pleasant Ridge yesterday to set up the death claim of Mr. Wm. R. (Tony) Jones, of that place, who died a few days ago, holding a policy of $10,000 with Mr. Dent's company. The United States is always reliable and prompt in all matters of the kind. People who seek life insurance should make well known and unquestioned reliability a prerequisite. No company in the country is more thoroughly so than that represented by Col. Dent. It is a matter about which too much care cannot be exercised.

Mr. Barry W. Riel and Miss Bertie J. Ward were married at Wesley Chapel, this county, last Sunday evening, after a very pleasant courtship. Mr. Riel is a genial young man of splendid personal traits who has by energy and industry effected accumulation of a competency, for his bride is a young lady of personal attractions, who has by her modest and womanly life made many warm friends and will gracefully adorn the name of wife. The Henshaw congratulates this excellent young couple and wishes them much happiness in the married state.

Everywhere where ability and character are recognized and appreciated, Kentuckians may be depended upon to take and hold rank with the best of the people of the earth. At a convention of the Democratic Party, Monday, Tuesday, held last week, the official conduct of Miss Julia Dink, formerly of this place, was most heartily endorsed. This was a matter of the highest approval of her conduct of a difficult office and will be received with pride by her many friends here.

Dr. J. E. Padgett was the victim of an accident Saturday that caused him to lose his left eye. While in a buggy and when just before the iron bridge near the fair grounds he collided with a team of horses and was thrown over the front wheel of the buggy. He sustained the fracture of the right eye, but is getting along as well as could be expected. The dust was so dense and the vehicles so thick that the drivers could not see but were forced to proceed. The accident was a serious one, but the doctor is confident that the eye will be restored.

Photographer A. D. Taylor can be seen each Saturday morning till 11 o'clock. If you want fine cabinet photos, call and see him.

Judge W. L. Hawkins, of Pleasant Ridge, while on his way to visit his daughter in Davis county last Tuesday, was struck with partial paralysis. He is getting along very well and is able to go about.

Ed. I. H. Teel, of the Christian Church, will fill his regular appointment in Hartford next Sunday morning and night. In the afternoon at 4 o'clock he will preach at Alexander schoolhouse.

The Ohio County Sunday School Convention will convene in Fordville on Friday and Saturday before the third Sunday of this month. All Sunday school of the county are requested to send delegates.

The prayer meeting at the Cumberland church in Hartford has been changed from Tuesday night to Monday night, of each week, which it is hoped will increase the attendance and be of general benefit.

Attorney W. T. Hayward has moved with his family to Louisville and will continue to practice his profession in that city. Mr. Hayward is a young lawyer of much ability, and a young friend in Hartford, although recently to this city, with much success in the legal line.

Hartford Lodge No. 675, F. A. M., will meet to call session Monday night, the 11th inst., to confer the third degree on a couple of candidates. Hon. T. S. Pettit and Mr. R. A. Fook, two very bright members of Owensboro, will have charge of the work. Quite a number of members from neighboring lodges are expected to attend.

A daily overland mail has been established between here and Owensboro which will make it a trip less than it was. It will be in charge of Mr. J. H. Hoover, who has been carrying the regular trip mail, and will be the great convenience to the towns along the route—Beda, Bedford, Pleasant Ridge and Massena—giving them the benefit of modern conveyance. It is justly due these thriving little towns.

The people of Hartford and vicinity will be gratified to learn that Dr. E. W. Ford, for some years has practiced his profession successfully in the north and of the county, will come to Hartford this week to make his home here in the future. He will engage in the practice of medicine, in which he has already attained so good a reputation. Dr. Ford is one of the highly cultured and skillful of Ohio county's many excellent physicians and will be an addition to the medical fraternity of Hartford. He is a charming wife, who was formerly Miss Lizzie Moore, of this place, will be welcomed by her many friends here. We are glad that Dr. Ford is here and are sure his life among the people of Hartford.

October 10th, Thursday of next week, Senator J. C. S. Blackburn, one of the most gifted orators on the continent, will address the voters of Ohio county at the court house in Hartford. Every citizen is invited to be present.
